

Maurice Trosclair

P.O. Box 13786 New Orleans, LA 70185 – 504-628-1277 – meaux@mauricetrosclair.com

Personal Profile Statement

As a highly accomplished, creative and self-motivated professional who is dedicated to continuously improving his skills and knowledge base, I am seeking a position which will utilize the professional skills I've developed through past work experiences. I am a strong communicator with the ability to manage and prioritize many job duties within demanding time constraints. I'm highly driven in development of computer skills with an ability to quickly learn and apply a variety of software applications on several platforms. Being a consistently highly rated performer who is the consummate team player and a mentor of his peers, I am a well-respected leader acknowledged for my commitment to excellence.

Achievements

- May 2020 Selected to perform by Wynton Marsalis on Lincoln Center's "Memorial for us all" national musical tribute to Covid-19 victims
- 2019 Composed and produced debut solo album Grateful - A sudden cardiac arrest survivor's awakening.
- 2019 Selected as a public speaker by Stryker to address its resource and development teams in Redmond Washington and Chicago, Illinois
- October 2018 Heartbeat NOLA launched Public Access Defibrillation (PAD) program to benefit music and hospitality communities in its mission to make the New Orleans area a heart-safe community..
- October 2018 Founded Heartbeat NOLA, a 501c3 non-profit and elected President and Chairman of the Board of Directors
- February 14, 2017 survived a sudden cardiac arrest
- 2007 Winner of the Meeting Planners International (MPI) Gulf States Chapter Most Valuable Player Award
- 2006 Awarded the Top 25 Most Extraordinary Minds in Sales & Marketing by HSMIAI (Hospitality Sales & Marketing International) at the Marriott Marquis in New York, NY
- 2006 – 2009 Winner of twelve HSMIAI Adrian Awards for Web Marketing, Flash Authoring and Event Marketing
- 2005 ADDY Award for original music for a public relations campaign
- 2005 Winner of the MPI Gulf States Chapter President's Award.

Skills

- 1984 Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communications - University of New Orleans, Lakefront New Orleans, LA
- Continuing education modules including various geoscience, graphic and multimedia computer programs running on P.C., OS, Unix and Linux platforms

Employment

- July 2009 - April 2020 Century Exploration New Orleans, LLC/Upstream Exploration LLC/Southern Oil of Louisiana LA - Senior Exploration Technician
- 2000 – 2009 Energy Partners, Ltd., New Orleans, LA - Senior Geoscience Technician
- 1999 - Present Freelance Graphic and Multimedia Specialist
- 1985- 1999 Amoco Production Company, New Orleans LA - Exploration Technologist

Skills

Highly skilled in multidiscipline support of geoscientists and engineers. Highly experienced in geological drafting, ARCGIS, Kingdom and Microstation, technical drawings, acquisition and manipulation of data. An expert in preparation of geologic structural and stratigraphic cross sections. Geographic areas worked include onshore and offshore Louisiana, Texas and the Gulf of Mexico including deep water projects. Extremely strong technical computer experience working on UNIX, Linux, PC, and MAC platforms.

Multimedia Specialist with expertise in web design and authoring, graphic design, large scale graphic preparation, digital audio, DVD video authoring, trade show booth design and construction. Skilled in conceptualizing, creating and developing projects for video, web and graphic using Adobe Creative Cloud applications. Possesses the unique capability to communicate messages through creative themes and innovative marketing techniques.

Interests

An accomplished musician with over 40 years of experience in trombone performance, music composition, arranging and record producing

References

Tom Bergeon
audiotomb@msn.com
504-237-2707

Michael Willis
michaeljwillis@gmail.com
504-481-9812

Mark Wojna
nolamjw@gmail.com
504-813-3014